

October 31st

Allan Parker Presents

A one day session exploring

Considered and Sensitive Conversations

CAIRNS

What you will learn

- Making sensitive and considered conversations a way of life and influencing productive interactions in all their forms in our school environment with students, parents and all members of our team
- All specific work groups will work together to select their agreed set of micro-behaviours to all put into practice back in the workplace to result in the emergence of our new culture
- Better quality conversations by planning, designing, option generating, exploration of potential, innovation options and building a better learning and fun work place
- Rapport building, relationship strengthening, community co-creating
- Setting and adhering to healthy boundaries and behaviour codes
- Taking care of your own wellbeing in the process
- Review external types of conversations
- How to support ongoing progress, transforming knowledge to daily used skills and behaviours that are applied everyday
- Dealing with violations of the above
- Dissolving aggression, hostility, abusive behaviour
- Broad principles and processes applicable to all contexts
- 6-8 specific skills (all situations)
